

To the FCC:

The full expression of viewpoints and diversity of opinions are an essential component of an open and vibrant democratic government. We believe the concentration of ownership of media outlets will serve to limit this expression and diversity, and therefore be counterproductive to open democratic government. Please do not approve further concentration of media ownership. Thank you.

Tim Maloney
Executive Director